1. Moonwatcher's dad is Morrowseer.

#2

2. That ash husk of a dragon in the tunnel? Those are the remains of Morrowseer.

#3

3. Umber has a crush on Winter. So he's gay...? Still contemplating whether or not this is true.

#4

Peril's dad is actually a RainWing; he's also the RainWing that couldn't change his scales. Jambu talked about him in the third book.

He's ALSO the dragon who might have killed Kinkajou.

He also had the talisman.

He has had a LOT of things happen to him.

#5

Long time no see, eh?

5. Darkstalker is the son of IceWing royalty, Prince Arctic.
All of the IceWings' royalty are related.
Who else do we know that is IceWing royalty?

That's right.

#6

6. The scavenger that Sunny named "Holler" is actually the daughter of the scavenger who killed Queen Oasis. Small world, huh?

#7

7. Some dragons brush their teeth! We know this because in Darkstalker, it read that Indigo and Fathom put squid ink in everybody's toothpaste. I'm assuming that usually only upper-class dragons brush their teeth, because it's never mentioned that the Dragonets had toothbrushes.

!! TALONS OF POWER SPOILERS FROM HERE ON OUT!!

This isn't really a fact, but just something I finally figured out. Darkstalker reminded me too much of a character from another series, but I couldn't figure it out until now.
He reminds me of Sol from Warriors.

Both of them are extremely charming, smooth and good with words. And both of them have powers. Well, Sol's 'powers' are still a mystery, but he did know about the solstice, so I guess that counts.

I'll find out more facts later!

#9

9. In case you missed it; Darkstalker is not, in fact, as big as a mountain. Thankfully, he's only 3x the size of a normal adult dragon.
Which is still pretty big, but not drop-dead enormous.

More facts coming soon, as I'm re-reading Talons of Power!

#10

10. We now basically know what Fathom's canon design is, because of how easily Darkstalker mistook Turtle for him.

#11

11. Umber is gay.
I repeat.
Umber is gay.

My friend Skye had the chance to talk to Tui today and she asked some questions!!! And that was one of them!!!
I'm actually freaking out rn aaaaa

#12

12. Foxflake is canon!!
Although I haven't read the book yet it seems like a cute ship

#13

13. There's going to be five more books in the main series, a Legends, and a graphic novel wheeze

#14

14. The dragonet named Firefly in Moon's vision is Glory and Deathbringer's kid

#15

15. STARFLIGHT'S EYES ARE DARK GREEN

#16

16. Only mind-readers have teardrop scales. It's basically like warning the other dragons 'hey I know what you're thinking'.

(Better alter Clairvoyant's design then oops).

#17

17. The legends book will be about Rose (Smolder's scavenger, Flower), Ivy, and an unnamed third one

That's!! All for now!!!!!

Aha

No thanks

I'm not updating this book anymore. I'm probably gonna delete it in a week. This was supposed to be a fun kind of side project but a lot of people turned it into a toxic book full of hate. So, that's it. I'm done. Sorry.

#18

I decided to come back and share more news that my friends had talked about with Tui, as they met with her again. Y'all's support means so much but I probably won't come back to this book for good <333 but thank you anyways

18. There are indeed plans for a LGBTQ+ main character this coming series!

#19

19. Glorybringer is canon, in case that hadn't been confirmed yet, BUT neither Starspeaker or Sunnyflight are canon yet so ;)

#20

20. The dragon that Winter saved in DoD was Lynx!

More to come, but I'm going to space them out. Thanks to my friends Mag and Skadi for writing down these! Again, news might have already spread about some of these things as the con was yesterday but in case people didn't know I will tell :)

#21

21. There will be a future winglet/book about the history of RainWings

#22

22. There is a different language on Pantera (new island), and it used to be more common than the current language on Pyrrhia
